

Reconnecting with play in paediatrics

CONFERENCE

21-23 March '24

Butterfly Creek | Auckland | NZ

$290
HPS Members

INTENSIVE DAY: Thurs, 21st March
Kristina Cavit MNZAC

Founder of The Kindness Collective a not-for-profit organisation hellbent on creating a world where everyone has the tools to manage stress and live meaningful lives. Delivering life changing Mindfulness based programs for individuals, schools, youth justice and youth.

2-DAY Conference:

Featuring our inspiring panel of keynote speakers

HPS Members*

$420

$270 per day

Fri, 22-23rd March

Ruta McKenzie

Early Years facilitator at CORE Education
Providing cultural guidance and strategic leadership in Tātai Aho Rau activities and work streams focused on Pacific early years, Primary and Tertiary learning environments.

Amohaere Tangitu

Distinguished Fellow - Māori health Sciences (Nursing) Implementing cultural safety in healthcare to ensure partnership, collaboration and equitable outcomes for Māori and other consumers of health care services.

Wiremu Matthews

Kānuka Wellbeing and Leadership
Integrating a holistic approach to support leadership that is underpinned by te ao Māori principles and tikanga for sustainable energy and team success.

Carleen Morris

Counselor & Family Therapist
Supporting people and organisations during times of change, trauma and critical incidents, including front line professionals who are exposed to high levels of acute and chronic stress.

Jaden Movold

Ambassador, Advocate and Athlete
Inspiring young people to follow their dreams, stand up for what they believe in and ensure those with disabilities have their voices heard.

Book your tickets through our website www.hospitalplay.org.nz

* Please see non-member pricing through our website